Dear FCC:

My husband and I have been K-LOVE listeners (and financial supporters) since moving to San Antonio two years ago. Our previous home in Mililani, Hawaii, did not offer the listener-supported K-LOVE, but offered another radio station instead.

K-LOVE is a tremendous blessing to this and the other communities it serves. Wherever we travel, we quickly tune our radio to find a K-LOVE station. It offers much more than just Christian music. It is a ministry that also prays for its listeners and shares their testimonies. To replace this station with an LPFM broadcaster providing other programming would be devastating and leave a spiritual void in the hearts of those who need it most. By having family-friendly, Christian radio programming available to the masses, K-LOVE provides an invaluable service which supports the public interest. Lives have been changed, and according to the testimony, even saved by the ministry of K-LOVE.

No LPFM station could ever replace K-LOVE.

Thanks for your consideration of these comments.
